

Whitepaper

Introduction

We will keep the whitepaper simple and short. The goal is for everyone - including newbies - to understand what Cryptolympics is all about.

We deliberately refrain from exaggerated shop talk and offer one hundred percent transparency. We do not make empty promises but only those we can keep.

What is Cryptolympics?

Cryptolympics is a home for 10 different community driven BEP-20-tokens. These 10 different tokens on the Binance Smart Chain are fully owned by the community. We - the creators of Cryptolympics- do not own any tokens after the launch.

The concept of Cryptolympics is based on the olympic games. It's like a game. A cool one.

10 different tokens are named after the top 10 crypto countries with the most crypto holders. These tokens are listed on a ranking list (at www.cryptolympics.space), sorted by the current price. We are going to launch the following tokens:

Team Brazil (BRA)

Team China (CHN)

Team Germany (GER)

Team India (IND)

Team Japan (JPN)

Team Nigeria (NGA)

Team Switzerland (CHE)

Team Turkey (TUR)

Team USA (USA)

Team Vietnam (VNM)

Olympic winners always receive a prize, right? We have created a PricePool, which is filled with 5% of each transaction (buy and sell) in BNB.

Weekly, the PricePool is airdropped to the holders of Cryptolympics tokens on a percentage basis.

Every two weeks the PricePool is airdropped to ranks 1-3 in the following ratio:

Rank 1: 70%

Rank 2: 20%

Rank 3: 10%

The weeks in between, rank 8-10 are rewarded in the following ratio:

Rank 8: 10%

Rank 9: 20%

Rank 10: 70%

Why should we reward the last places?

Because “the most important part is not winning, but taking part”.

THAT's the olympic spirit.

Imagine a Volume(24h) of $1M/token:

PricePool of BNBs worth $3.500.000 in one week.

All yours, Olympians.

The airdrop and its gas fees are paid by the PricePool, which is being done with www.multisender.app

Tokenomics For Each Token

Our goal: As fair as possible and 100% transparency!

Launch, distribution and locking.

For each token, we conduct a fairlaunch on:

www.pinksale.finance

The softcap is 20BNB.

70% raised in the fairlaunch goes into PancakeSwap liquidity.

Total supply for each token: 10.000.000.000

Percentage	Owner	Locking
60%	Public Sale	-
40%	PancakeSwap Liquidity	10 Years
0%	Team	-

Taxes for each transaction (buy & sell)

2% PancakeSwap liquidity

5% PricePool in BNB

5% Marketing in BNB

Our Promises

 We create a fair launch.

We do not own any tokens without buying them.

*The liquidity is 100%
locked for 10 years.
This prevents a rugpull.*

*Ownership renounced.
Once launched, the contract is not owned by us anymore.
This prevents a rugpull.*

 *No token burning.
So much hype about burning tokens
but barely any impact on the price.*

*NFTs? Yes.
September 2022. Stay tuned.*
